

UniMac's UW45 and UW65 hard-mount washer-extractors include features that help increase throughput while offering the lowest cost of ownership. The new drive shaft assembly has cylindrical front and spherical rear bearings designed to handle heavier loads and have a longer life than traditional ball bearings. The machines feature a 400 G-Force extraction speed, resulting in maximum water removal. UniMac, Ripon, Wisconsin. unimac.com